Numismagram Newsletter #5 (V/2018)

After a successful show at the Chicago Coin Expo which saw a good deal of both selling and buying, as well as visiting with friends and colleagues, we have returned and had a chance to work through numerous recent purchases, some of which are represented here in this month's upload to our website. Among this dazzling array of medallic art are some timelessly iconic Napoleonic issues, a couple choice Swiss shooting medals, and a particular focus upon intricate and ornate architectural motifs.

Speaking of Chicago, what coin show would be complete without a mini road report? This mini, highlighting a few choice craft beers from the midwest, were paired with—what else?—numismatic selections from Numismagram:

First up, we have New Money from Central State Brewing Company in Indianapolis, Indiana—a 6.5% ABV IPA. The Mosaic, Simcoe, and Hull Melon hops blend brilliantly to create a spectacular bitterness with a body that finishes very cleanly. Of course this needed to be paired with some 'old money' ancients from the case...

Next up, we have Under Crown by 18th Street Brewery in Hammond, Indiana—an 8.6% ABV Imperial IPA. This bigger beer features a similar complement of hops (Mosaic and Simcoe) and drinks much more easily than its ABV would suggest, offering a great floral dankness. This intense can art (which is fairly typical for many breweries in and around Chicagoland) fit perfectly with a couple newly purchased skull pellofa tokens from Barcelona...
